CURRICULUM VITAE

BIOGRAPHY

Emilio Vavarella is an Italian artist and researcher working at the intersection of interdisciplinary art practice, theoretical inquiry and media experimentation. His work explores the relationship between subjectivity, nonhuman creativity and technological power. It is informed by the history of conceptual art, digital and network cultures, and new media practices.

His work has been shown at MAXXI – Museo nazionale delle arti del XXI secolo; KANAL – Centre Pompidou; Hermitage Museum in St. Petersburg; MAMbo – Museo d’Arte Moderna di Bologna; Madre Museum of Contemporary Art – Napoli; Museum of Contemporary Art – Zagreb; Museu de Ciències Naturals of Barcelona, Museo Nacional Bellas Artes in Santiago; Museo de Arte de Caldas in Manizales; Museu das Comunicações of Lisbon, Museum of Contemporary Art Vojvodina in Novi Sad, The Photographer’s Gallery of London, National Art Center of Tokyo; Eyebeam Art and Technology Center in New York, Off Biennale Cairo and Kyiv Biennial, among others.

His films have screened at: Toronto’s Images Festival; Torino Film Festival, St. Louis International Film Festival, HKW – Haus der Kulturen der Welt, Jeu de Paume and at many international media art festivals, among which: Rencontres International Paris – Berlin, EMAF – European Media Art Festival; JMAF – Japan Media Arts Festival; Stuttgarter Filmwinter – Festival for Expanded Media; BVAM – Media Art Biennale; and NYEAF – New York Electronic Arts Festival.

Vavarella has been awarded numerous art prizes and grants, among which the Exibart Art Prize (2020); Italian Council award (2019); Premio Fattori Contemporaneo (2019); SIAE – Nuove Opere (2019); the NYSCA Electronic Media and Film Finishing Funds grant (2016); the Francesco Fabbri Prize for Contemporary Art (2015) and the Movin’Up Grant (2015). He has been invited to present his work at: Harvard Advanced Leadership Initiative; Istituto Italiano di Cultura – New York; ISEA – International Symposium on Electronic Arts; Goldsmiths University of London; the University of East London; University of Milan; the School of the Art Institute of Chicago; and SIGGRAPH.

His most recent artist book, published by Mousse, is entitled rs548049170_1_69869_TT. His academic writings have been published in the anthology Error, Ambiguity, Creativity: A Multidisciplinary Reader (Palgrave Mcmillan); in peer-reviewed journals such as Leonardo – The Journal of the International Society of the Arts, Sciences and Technology (MIT Press), Digital Creativity (Routledge), and CITAR Journal – Journal of Science and Technology of the Arts. His writings have also appeared in Behind the Smart World: Saving, Deleting and Resurfacing Data produced by the AMRO Research Lab and in exhibition catalogues like Low Form: Imaginaries and Visions in the Age of Artificial Intelligence (MAXXI and CURA Books); That’s IT! (MAMbo), and Robot Love (Niet Normaal Foundation). His work is regularly discussed in art magazines, academic books and peer-reviewed journals, and has been covered by all major global media outlets.

Vavarella is completing a PhD in Film and Visual Studies and Critical Media Practice at Harvard. He holds an M.A./M.F.A. cum laude in Visual Arts from Iuav University of Venice, with study abroad fellowships at Bezalel Academy of Arts and Design, Tel Aviv and Bilgi University of Istanbul and received a B.A. cum laude in Visual, Cultural, and Media Studies from the University of Bologna.

Currently, Vavarella is a 2023 Harvard Horizons Scholar; the artist in residence of the Broad Institute of MIT and Harvard; and is working on an interdisciplinary project for the Italian Pavilion at the 18th International Architecture Exhibition - La Biennale di Venezia.
